The Honorable Lewis L. Strauss
Secretary of Commerce
Department of Commerce
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Lewis:

I have your letter of 16 March and want you to know that I sincerely appreciate your very kind remarks about my talk to the Business Advisory Council.

It was good of you to write me as you did.

With warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

THE SECRETARY OF COMMERCE
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

16 March 1959

Dear Allen:

I greatly appreciate your speaking to the Business Advisory Council last Wednesday evening and I congratulate you on the scholarly and impressive way in which you discussed the difficult problems of Berlin and the Near East.

It seemed to me that the rapt attention of the Council members was the best testimonial to the effectiveness of your remarks.

Thank you very much for having been with us.

Sincerely,

Harry (Struss)
